

IRMA S. LAPPAY is one of the pioneers of the Philippine Retirement Authority.

Joined government service in December 15, 1980 with VTOFCO, a subsidiary of the Philippine Virginia Tobacco Administration.

Started as a Bookkeeper in PRA on July 1, 1988, and assumed several positions from Management Information System Analyst III to Market Specialist IV.

In 2011, was appointed as the Division Chief of the Management Information Systems Division, and became the Division Chief of the Corporate Planning in the same year through lateral appointment.

From 2012 up to the present, was designated as the Officer-In-Charge of the Management Services Department, overseeing the Corporate Planning Division, and the Information and Communications Technology Division.

Earned my BS Degree in Commerce major in Accounting from Adamson University-Manila.